

N I R E S I R R

are you lost in your lies do you tell yourself
i don't realize
your crusade's a disguise replaced freedom with fear you trade money for lives

i'm aware of
what you've done

no no more sorrow
i paid for your mistakes

your time
is borrowed

your time has come
to be replaced

i see pain i see need
i see liars and thieves
abuse power with greed
i had hope i belived
but i'm beginning to think that i've been deceived

you will pay
for what you've done
